ADMINISTRATION and STAFF

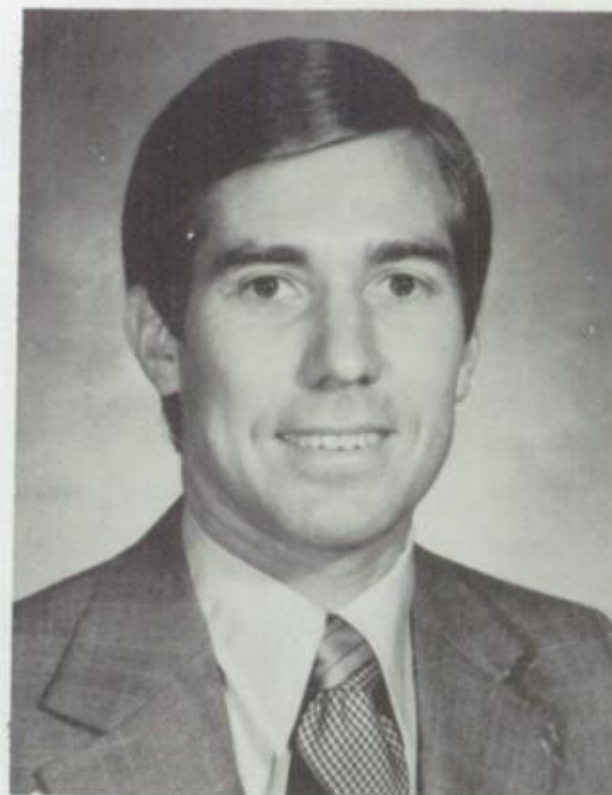

The Bernal Experience
It would be a better world tomorrow,
if all our Youth were able to share in the "Bernal Experience", today.
Bernal Parents, 1974

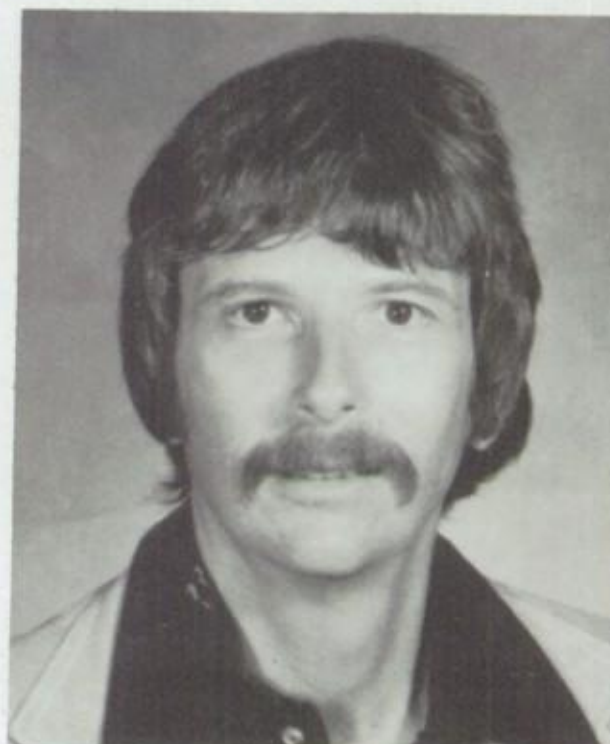

The "Class of 79," is the sixth graduating class to share in the "Bernal Experience," since our opening in 1974. Although Bernal is a comparatively new school, as members of its student body and staff, we have been provided opportunities to promote, experience and establish traditions that will last for years.

We have been provided opportunities to participate in a variety of special activities and learning experiences, to develop leadership skills and standards of excellence, and to establish lasting friendships, a sense of belonging and a spirit of togetherness.

The Bernal Experience Is . . .
Striving for Excellence
Responsible Citizenship
Leadership and Acceptance of Responsibility
Honesty and Dependability
Spirit and Enthusiasm
Cooperation and Togetherness
A Sense of Belonging and Friendship
Pride and Poise
School Service and Student Activities
Involvement and Tradition

TO EXPLORE AND TO APPRECIATE

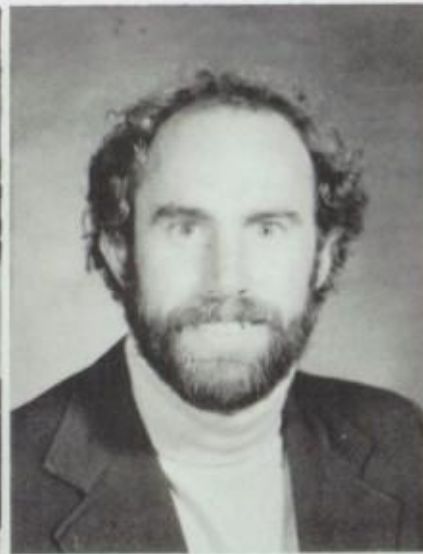

The elective classes at Bernal offer our students the opportunity to develop interest in many areas of the Arts. Not only can they explore vocal and instrumental music, but they can also choose to take cultural foods, stitchery, crafts, leather, ceramics, furniture construction, metals and drawing.

COMMUNICATION IS THE BEGINNING OF UNDERSTAND- ING

Counselors have an interesting and challenging job — understanding people. They are willing to help students, parents and teachers solve problems. They do their job by teaching people how to communicate with each other, by giving them the right classes and by understanding the problem.

THE PEOPLE WHO WORK BEHIND THE SCENES TO ASSIST IN YOUR
SUCCESS IN SCHOOL ARE MEMBERS OF THE SUPPORT STAFF.

The Bernal Support Staff provides additional guidance services. The members of the support staff are Thomas Burgei, Speech Therapist; Manny Barbara, School Psychologist; Larry Dauch, Vice-Principal; Ruth Ann Dolan, Health Services; and the three counselors.
